

Federal Reserve System

§ 264a.3

For example, the provisions of section 4 of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended by the Federal Reserve Reform Act of 1977, provide that both class B and C directors shall be chosen to represent the public and with “due but not exclusive consideration to the interests of agriculture, commerce, industry, services, labor, and consumers.” Section 4 further provides that class A directors “shall be chosen by and be representative of the stock-holding banks” of the Federal Reserve System. Recognizing that Reserve Bank directors may have, in their private capacities, business, consumer, or other interests to which legitimate attention is to be given; but recognizing also that these same individuals have fiduciary responsibilities as directors of Reserve Banks, this regulation is promulgated for the purpose of assuring preservation of and adherence to the intent of both the Federal Reserve Act and section 208 of title 18, United States Code.
